

CALL FOR VIDEO PROJECTS

Are you a student with a passion for history and politics and would you like to debate these subjects during the 5th OHTE Annual Conference, being held at the Council of Europe, Strasbourg, France from 16-17 October 2025?

Send us your video application and join us for this experience!

To apply, make sure you meet the following requirements:

- You have a master's degree or doctorate in history, political science, international relations or an equivalent field of study
- You are under 30 years of age
- You are a national of one of the member states of the Council of Europe
- You have an excellent level of English (C1 or higher), and are able to express yourself clearly and convincingly in front of a large audience

In addition to your CV, please send us a video (no longer than 2 minutes) sharing your thoughts on the debate theme:

'History should not be used as a political tool'

This will be the topic of the debate you'll be taking part in. Send your video using WeTransfer or similar to the following address: ohte@coe.int

 The deadline for submitting applications is 30 June 2025.

The assessment criteria will be:

- Clarity and structure of the argument (i.e. relevant and well-organised arguments) – 30%
- Quality of oral delivery (i.e. clear diction and appropriate tone) – 20%
- Relevance and originality of the speech (i.e. ability to nuance the debate, to capture interest and stimulate reflection, use of examples to support arguments) – 50%

The 3 best candidates selected will be notified as soon as possible after the deadline and all travel and accommodation expenses will be arranged and paid for by the Council of Europe.
